Errorless Game Scored by Cook of Tordondo Tigers

Gene Cook of Tordondo Little League, who gave up one hit while striking out 14 and his team mates last week played errorless ball as the Tigers won this one to stay in a tie for first place with the Senators. Bill Bergeron was the losing pitcher in this heart breaker.

Senators kept pace with the Tigers by beating the Dodgers 8 to 1. In this game the younger Cowden, Don, gave up only one run to try to show big brother Dick that he is a pitcher too. Mike Mahaffey's big bat accounted for a three-run homer. Cubs came back to beat the Braves, 5 to 1. Mike White turned in this good pitching performance and hit a home run to dominate the game.

Winning battery of Bruce Read and Mike Mentz gave the White Sox an 8 to 9 victory over the Dodgers. Read with his fine pitching performance and Mentz with a home run.

MINORS

Minor League Doings: The Phillies beat the Giants 28 to 5. Jim Mullens and Mike Manlion shared the pitching chores. Jim contributed two doubles and a single to the cause. Then the Phils did it again. Two days later they beat the Giants 3 to 1 in a tight ball game. Mullins and Manion (sounds like a Dublin law firm) again shared the pitching duties for the Phillies. Netherly and Netherly (Bruce and Tim) was the losing brother act in this tough loss. Bruce struck out 11. Allen Sorenson made his debut with the Giants playing a good game in the infield. They teach them good in the rookie school.

In another play-off, the Orioles broke a 7-7 tie with an eight run rally and then their pitcher; Bill Barto proceeded to strike out three Red Sox in a row to settle matters. Pierson is still shaking his head over the performance Bill Barto turned in when the chips were down.

Other results—Stars beat the Angels 11 to 9. Pirates scuttled the Beavers 28, to 5 with Bryan Rodman going the pitching distance for the Pirates.

Hollypark Schedules 21st Hollywood Derby July 8

Topped by the invading twosome of Sherlock and Guadaluca, the one-three horses of the $148,650 Belmont Stakes, the third gem of the Triple Crown for three-year-olds, the $100,000 added Hollywood Derby will have its twenty-first running and probably its most thrilling renewal in history at Hollywood Park on Saturday, July 8.

On hand, among other western stars to challenge the invaders is Four-and-Twenty, the Albera Ranches color-bearer who so easily outdistanced his field in the recent mile and one-eighth Cinema Handicap, a race that many times in the past has pointed out the winner of the mile and one-quarter Derby.

Five horses have parlayed the Cinema into a Derby conquest—the great filly Honey-moon in 1946, Yankee Valor in 1947, Pedigree in 1949, A Gleam in 1952 and the money-winning king of all time, Round Table, in 1957.

BELMONT WIN
Because of his six-length victory in the Blue Grass stakes and the two and one-half length win he posted in the Belmont Stakes at one and one-half miles; Jacob Sherlock is the better known of the two eastern colts who flew to Hollywood Park from New York this week especially for the Hollywood Derby.

Sherlock is the son of Correspondent, the California-bred who won the 1954 $162,100 Hollywood Gold Cup. After his galloping win in the Blue Grass, Sherlock was out of the money behind Carry Back in both the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, but he came into his own in the Belmont.

Gaudalcanal, a Citation colt owned by Mrs. Robert Dotter and trained by her husband, ex-jockey Bobby Dotter, has been raced lightly this year and appeared in none of the sophomore classics until the Belmont. Previously he had won an overnight race at a flat mile at Aqueduct.

Dotter believes that Gaudalcanal is the best colt ever sired by the mighty Citation, also a one-time Hollywood Gold Cup winner, and that the ten-furlong distance of the Hollywood Derby will be exactly to his liking.

However, the prestige of the eastern invaders will not scare off the western three-year-olds and a large field is anticipated. The Cinema Handicap was split into two divisions because of the interest in the three-year-old championship race, and the majority of the 17 who started in the two divisions of the Cinema will try the Derby.

Mr. America, winner of the Argonaut Handicap and runner up to Four-and-Twenty, is certain, as are We're Hoping, Songman, Ballpoint, Double Lea, Aldershot and Sonofagun.

HC Little League Schedules Annual 'Dance-for-Funds'

Parents and sponsors of the Harbor City Little League yesterday announced they would present their annual Season Dance on Saturday, July 28, 8 p.m. until 1 a.m.

Dance will be held at the Retail Clerks Union Hall on Bellepointe St., Harbor City. All proceeds of the dance will be used to develop the new ballpark of the league and to provide equipment for the young players.

Music will be provided by the "Continental" and door prizes will be awarded. Donation is $1 per person.

Motorcycle Steeplechase Set Tonight

Dick Dorresteyn of upstate San Pablo goes to the post the favorite tomorrow night in a motorcycle steeplechase program over a treacherous course at Ascot Park, 183rd and Vermont.

Dorresteyn, 1958 national champion, holds every record for the nine-turn circuit with its 10-foot barrier jump, from 49:55 for one lap to 12:39.96 for the 15-lap main event.

The largest field of the season, 120 riders, is ready for one lap qualifying at 7 p.m. First of the 1 races is at 8:30 p.m. under direction of J. C. Agajanian.

Along with Dorresteyn, four former national steeplechase champions are in the bulging field: Joe Leonard of San Jose, 1960 winner; Dick Mann, El Sobrante, 1957; Al Gunter, Los Angeles, 1956, and Eddie Kretz, Monterey Park, 1955.

Chief threat, however, is Dick Hammer of Lakewood, who upset Dorresteyn in the first night race of the season May 29 before a capacity crowd of 7407 fans. Another record turnout is anticipated for tonight's pre-holiday two-wheeling fireworks.

Oval-track point leader Neil Keen is another serious contender for Dorresteyn, Hammer and the former champions as are Jack O'Brien and Stu Morley, members of the famed BSA wrecking crew.

TV Personalities Cavort At Ruth League Game

North Torrance Babe Ruth League will stage a rip-snorter ball game on July 4 at 1 p.m. at Guenser Park, 178th and Gramercy, between the "Hollywood Shorties" and the League's 13 year old players.

Ball players of the Hollywood Shorties are composed of the "little people" of show business, including Little Oscar, Billy Barty of Spike Jones fame, and many other movie and TV personalities.

Al Welch, president of the N.T. Babe Ruth League, said the exhibition ball game is guaranteed to set major league baseball back fifty years as the "Hollywood Shorties" combine their baseball skill with their comedy antics.

SPINS OUT—Chuck Townsen, Gardena, spins out and is hit by Cliff Fagot, Torrance, in last week's CJA Stock Car Races at Gardena's Western Speedway. Both will be in action in today's races at the Western Avenue speedplant. Tomorrow night the hot rods go in a 100-lap program with a gigantic fireworks display.

Headline Stock Car Racers Vie For $750 Purse in Gardena Today

Arley Scranton, Compton, and Jerry Plotts, Gardena, lead a field of fifty cars in today's CJA stock car races at Gardena's Western Speedway, where a nine event program is carded.

Scranton, winner of the last two stock car features, will wheel his Oldsmobile, while Plotts goes in the Ford that has carried him to a win and a second in his last two outings.

Today's program will feature a 40-lap main event with a $750 winner's purse up for grabs in the holiday weekend program. Racing begins at 2:30 p.m. preceded by time trials at 1 p.m.

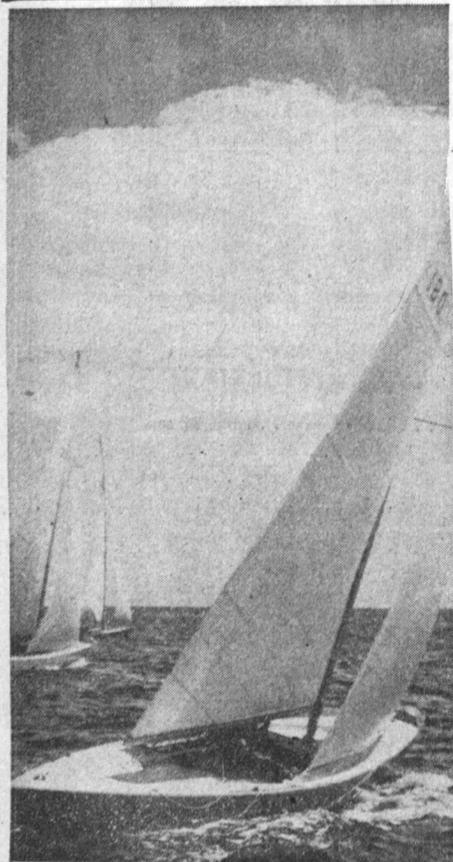

UP TO 3RD

Scranton is currently up to third in stock car points, while Plotts is ninth. Both will be out to narrow the lead of point leader "Wild" Bill Foster of Newhall who drives an Oldsmobile. Other drivers in the first ten are: Jim Cook, Norwalk; (Dodge); Scranton; Dick Cook, Lakewood (Hud-
